

THE FREEMASONS'
GRAND CHARITY

The Freemasons' Grand Charity is delighted to announce it has launched its new website, delivering a fresh and modern feel whilst introducing great functionality and improved content. Cost effectiveness has been taken into consideration at every point of the design process.

Content includes:

- Further information about our grant-making programmes, including detailed case studies and advice about the application process
- New information about the Relief Chest Scheme, including downloadable forms and FAQ's
- Downloadable "Fact Sheets" about the work of the Charity
- Event support (presentations, posters etc)
- Recent news and publicity
- Red Cross "thank you" video from Haiti

We have designed this website to provide you – the user – with as much information as possible and we hope you find the new site to be an improvement: www.grandcharity.org

We are always interested in hearing your feedback and suggestions, if you can please take a moment to complete the attached form and email it to the following address, it would be much appreciated: smccarthy@the-grand-charity.org

Many thanks,

Siobhan McCarthy / Senior Communications Officer
