

SOUTHEND AND ESSEX MASONIC WELFARE TRUST FUNCTION DATES

These are mainly funded by the Southend and Essex Masonic Welfare Trust (SEMWT), and with the exception of the Annuitants Holiday are held at the Southend Masonic Centre (SMC), who subsidise these events.

Further details can be obtained from the Southend and Essex Masonic Welfare Trust by contacting:- Les Seals, Secretary, 75 Rayleigh Avenue, Eastwood, Leigh-On-Sea Essex SS9 5DN. Tel 01702 524654 les.seals@talktalk.net

Robert Potter, General Manager, Southend Masonic Centre, Saxon Hall Aviation Way, Southend-on-Sea, Essex SS2 6UN. Tel 01702 545554 robert@saxonhall.co.uk

A brief summary of each function follows with dates from now until the end of 2013:-

FUNCTION	Details
Almoners' Lunch	A luncheon held twice a year for the widows of Freemasons, with pre-dinner drinks and wine plus entertainment and a gift. Units reimburse SEMWT for all who attend at a subsidised rate.
R.M.B.I. Annuitants Holiday	A two week Holiday in the Southend area with visits to local attractions provided by the SEMWT. Offers of help are always welcome.
Cockney Night	Held in the first week of the Annuitants Holiday. A seafood starter and traditional meal of bangers and mash with pre-dinner drinks and wine plus dessert and tea or coffee. SMC is reimbursed at a subsidised rate.
Annuitants Farewell Dinner	Held at the end of the Annuitants Holiday. A 3 course (roast) meal with pre-dinner drinks and wine, plus dessert and tea or coffee. SMC is reimbursed at a subsidised rate.
Children's Christmas Party	Open to children aged between 4 and 11. A Burger, Chips & Drink, plus entertainment, and an appearance by Santa who gives a present. Units pay SMC for those who attend at a subsidised rate.
Widows Christmas Dinner and Carol Concert	A 3 course traditional Christmas meal with pre-dinner drinks and wine, plus a present for each widow. Units reimburse SMC at a subsidised rate. After the dinner there is a Carol Concert followed by cheese and wine or mince pies and tea or coffee. SMC provides the Concert and light refreshments free of charge, but a collection is taken afterwards with all proceeds going to the SEMWT.
