

PGM Presents Annual Cheques to Essex Hospice Representatives.

Hospice representatives were invited to meet the Provincial Grand Master at the Masonic Hall, Chelmsford, on the morning of 27th January where they were presented with cheques amounting to £19,934 from the Freemasons Grand Charity.

This money was part of the £500,000 donation for the hospice movement in England and Wales. It brings the total now donated from the Grand Charity to the hospice movement to over £8,000,000.
